

Gokaraju Rangaraju Institute of Engineering and Technology (Autonomous)

International Conference on “Newer Perspectives on LSRW Practices” held on 11th & 12th February 2022.

To enlighten the teachers on the changing pedagogical methods and materials, and the influence of technology on English language, Faculty members of English, Department of H&S organized the 1st International Conference on “Newer Perspectives on LSRW Practices”.

The following dignitaries gave their valuable inputs during the conference.

- Sri M. G. Sekharam, CEO, GRES – Inaugural Address
- Prof. K. Venkat Reddy, EFLU, Hyderabad - Keynote Address
- Prof. Khalid Almashiki, Dhofar University, Oman - Chief Guest of Inaugural Function
- Ms. Veena Krishnamurthy, IELTS & TOEFL Master Trainer
- Prof. K. Elango, Anna University, Chennai – Plenary Session Speaker
- Prof. Natalia Knoblock, Saginwa State University, USA
- Prof. Anand Mahanand, EFLU, Hyderabad - Plenary Session Speaker
- Dr. R. T. Bedre, Sagar University, M.P. - Valedictory Chief Guest
- Mr. Muhammed Mustaq, Corporate Trainer, Hyderabad

Workshop was held on the topics “The Importance of Intercultural Communication in Educational Establishments” and “Preparing a research article for publication in an academic journal”.

The Plenary session dealt with the topics “Dam the flow: Teaching-Learning Trajectory of English” and “Towards an Alternative Approach to Assessment”.

Papers were presented during the two-day conference.

This event was possible due to the support and encouragement of the Management of our Institute, Sri M G Sekharam, CEO of GRES; Dr. Jandhyala N Murthy, Director; Dr. J Praveen, Principal and Dr. K V S Raju, Sr. A.O.